

Legend

1. Deerfield Cemetery
2. North Northfield Cemetery
3. O'Flain Cemetery
4. St. Patrick's Cemetery
5. Jacob Gadwell's House (1833)
6. First Village Store
7. Frederick Muhle Home (1837)
8. Louis Gasfield Home (1842)
9. John Millen Home (1839)
10. Philip Brand home (1844)
11. & 12. Gadwell homes
13. Cadwell School (1848)
14. Alfred Parsons home (1843)
15. Philip Velder home (1844)
16. Job Galloway home (1840)
17. Jesse Whitmot (1835)
18. Lyman Whitmot (1837)
19. Andrew Meier home (1842)
20. Fred Fritch home
21. Jasper Ott
22. Jacob Ott
23. John Jacob Ott Sr.
24. Lorenz Ott
25. Jacob Luther (1835)
26. Martin Luther (1835)
27. Jennings' Homestead
28. Stewart family
29. Dose home
30. Vincent's Grist Mill
31. William School (1847)
32. James Duffey (1844)
33. Patrick Carolan (1841)
34. Ludlow home
35. Michael Meehan home (1835)
36. James O'Connor home
37. Dorsey home
38. Dawson home
39. Bartholamew Boylan
40. Michael Dawson
41. Michael Fagan
42. Dennis Lancaster
43. Michael Kore
44. McIntyre & Tullis
45. James Mooney
46. Philip Ott home (1836)
47. Radebush home
48. St. Mary's of the Woods cemetery. Here, in 1674, Father Marquette erected a cross, preaching to the Indians.

INDIAN ENCAMPMENT AT THE DES PLAINES RIVER

DEERFIELD CENTENNIAL 1935

OPEN PRAIRIE

PERE MARQUETTE'S CROSS

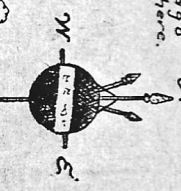

James L. Heide - Deerfield, Ill.

AN HISTORICAL MAP OF THE TOWN NOW CALLED DEERFIELD ILLINOIS

As it appeared in the year 1845 TEN YEARS AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST SETTLER

Prior to 1849 this North Branch of the Chicago River being here.

The home of Michael, who organized the first meeting, 1819, where the town of Deerfield was first settled.

LAKE MICHIGAN